From the Barbadoes Gazette, July 15. 1734.

We are inform'd that To-morrow Morning Mr. Gilmore a Romiſh Prieſt will make a publick Recantation of the Errors of that Church. As Chriſtian Charity obliges us to Rejoice, (as the very Angels do) when a Sinner is converted from the Error of his Ways, ſo it is hop'd that Gentleman will oblige the moſt judicious as well as religious Part of Mankind with the Reaſons of his Converſion, which probably, may produce very good Effects, and bring many to the Obedience of Truth, out of Ignorance, Superſtition, and groſs Idolatry.

Bridge-Town, July 24. On Sunday Se'night Mr. Gillmore, lately a Romiſh Prieſt, made a publick Recantation of the Errors of the Church of Rome, and embrac'd the Proteſtant Religion according to the Church of England, as by Law eſtabliſh'd, in the following Words;

" I Chriſtopher Gillmor, do in the Preſence " of GOD, and in the Face of this Congre- " gation, and with great Sorrow and Contriti- " on of Heart, lament and bewail my great and " unſpeakable Misfortune in being born in the " Church of Rome, and bred up in the Doctrines " and Principles thereof; all which Doctrines " and Principles, ſuch as the Pope's pretended " Supremacy, Infallibility, Tranſubſtantiation, " Invocation of Saints, Purgatory, Worſhip- " ping of Images and Relicks, and praying " for the Dead, and all other Forms and Ar- " ticles of the Romiſh Religion, diſſonant to " the Word of GOD, I do ſolemnly and " ſincerely renounce, deteſt and abhor, as Im- " pious, idolatrous, and heretical.

" And I do acknowledge and allow His " Majeſty King GEORGE the IId, to be " the only Lawful Supreme Governour of the " Kingdom of Great Britain, and all other " the Dominions and Countries thereto be- " longing, and that no Foreign Prince, Per- " ſon, Pope, Prelate, State or Potentate hath " or ought to have any Juriſdiction, Superi- " ority, Preheminence or Authority, Eccleſiaſti- " cal, Spiritual or Temporal, within His Maje- " ſty's ſaid Realms, Dominions and Countries.

" And I do likewiſe openly and willingly " declare my unfeigned Aſſent and Conſent to " all the Doctrines of the Church of England, " as by Law eſtabliſhed, and every Thing " contained and preſcribed in, and by the " Book entitled, The Book of Common Pray- " er and Adminiſtration of Sacraments, and " other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church, " according to the Uſe of the Church of Eng- " land, together with the Pſalter or Pſalms " of David, pointed as they are to be ſung " or ſaid in Churches, and the Form or Man- " ner of making, ordaining and conſecrating " of Biſhops, Prieſts and Deacons.

" And I do alſo approve of, and allow " the Book of Articles of Religion common- " ly call'd the Thirty-Nine Articles, beſides " the Ratification, to be agreeable to the " Word of GOD.

" And I do make this Declaration and Re- " nunciation heartily, willingly and ſincerely, " according to the common ſenſe and mean- " ing of the Words now by me ſpoken, with- " out any Reſerve, Exceptions, Equivocati- " on or Qualification, whatſoever; and for " the Truth hereof I appeal to GOD the " Searcher of Hearts, and from whom no Se- " crets are hid; whoſe Name I bleſs and " praiſe for all his Mercies and Favours con- " ferr'd upon me; but more particularly for " his Grace to illuminate my Underſtanding, " thereby leading me into the Way of Truth " in which by his Grace and Mercy, I hope " and am determined to continue the Remain- " der of my Days; that is to ſay, in the Doc- " trine of that Pure and Apoſtolical Part of " Chriſt's Church, the Churches of England " and Ireland, by Law eſtabliſhed. AND SO " HELP ME GOD.

Chriſtopher Gillmor.

WE whose Names are under-written, do hereby certify, that Chriſtopher Gillmor did in the Pariſh Church of St. Michael in the Iſland of Barbados, on the 14*th of* July, 1734. before the Congregation there aſſembled, openly, publickly, and ſolemnly read all that is contained in the Declaration, and Renunciation.

Barbadoes, July 24. On Sunday laſt the Rev. Mr. William Johnſon, Rector of St. Michael's (who is going to the Northward for his Health) preach'd his Farewel Sermon, and made an excellent Diſcourſe on the 1ſt of the Philippians, the 27th Verſe. Only let your Converſation be as becometh the Goſpel of Chriſt; that whether I come and ſee you, or elſe be abſent, I may hear of your Affairs, that ye ſtand faſt in one Spirit, with one Mind ſtriving together for the Faith of the Goſpel. And we hear that on Sunday next in the Morning, Mr. Gilmor is to have the Uſe of the ſame Pulpit, and to exhibit to a Proteſtant Auditory; on this Occaſion as 'tis expected there will be many of his old Acquaintance preſent, 'tis to be hop'd his Example, together with the Force of his Arguments, may have ſome Influence upon them, and in Time prove the happy Means of their Converſion alſo.

Paris, July 22. They write from the Camp before Philipsburg, of the 11th Inſtant, that on the 9th in the Afternoon the Te Deum was ſung in our Camp, by way of Thankſgiving for the Victory gained in Italy; when all the Artillery were ſeveral times diſcharged, and there were repeated Vollies of Small Shot. At Night the whole Camp was illuminated on both Sides of the Rhine 'till three o'Clock in the Morning. Prince Eugene made Rejoicings alſo on his Part, for the Reduction of the City of Dantzick.

From the Camp before Dantzick, July 14. General Biron, who was detached hence with a conſiderable Body of Horſe, to go and chace the Poliſh Troops, is return'd with an Account that he could by no means come up to them: However, the General tells us he was credibly inform'd on his March, that King Staniſlaus had left Marienwerder. We have further Advices from the ſaid Town, importing, that upon his Arrival the Pruſſian Officer who commands there immediately conducted him to the Caſtle, where he placed a Guard for the Safety of his Perſon, compos'd of a Detachment of the Regiment of Bodenbrock's Cuiraſſiers, Part of the Garriſon: That the Prince, after a few Days ſtay, ſet out for Rieſenburgh; what Rout he took afterwards, they know not; though they underſtood, that before his Departure he was ſo free as to declare to ſeveral Perſons, that he had a ſtrong Inclination to go and join the Poliſh Army, which is actually gathering near Culm, and will be ſuddenly reinforc'd by ſeveral Bodies diſpers'd throughout the Kingdom. It appears that King Staniſlaus did not reſolve to leave Dantzick before the Day he executed his Deſign, and that was after he had certain Intelligence that the General de Munich had declared to the Magiſtracy, that he would hear of no Propoſals before they conſented to deliver him up in Perſon. After his Departure from Dantzick he ran great Risks during his Journey, which laſted ſeven Days before he reach'd Marienwerder: He could only travel by Night, being oblig'd to lie hid all Day: He paſs'd through ſeveral Poſts in the Poſſeſſion of the Ruſſians; and in ſome Places was up to his Waſte in Water. The Primate of this Kingdom is at Dirſchau, where he is fallen ſick: The Marqueſs de Monti is conducted thither in like Manner, under a ſtrong Guard; and this Evening Madam Potocki will be convey'd to the ſame Place with her Children: This Lady is the Relict of the Primate's Brother, and was prevail'd upon to come to Dantzick ſome Time ſince from Warſaw. We now go freely into Dantzick, and every Day great Numbers of Ruſſians, Coſſacks and Saxons, enter the City without Exception. The Commiſſaries nam'd on the Part of Ruſſia and Saxony, to examine into all that paſs'd touching the Retreat of King Staniſlaus, and diſcover who were concern'd therein, go on in their Enquiries in a very ſtrict Manner. They don't talk yet of the Departure of the Army.

From the Camp of Wieſenthal, July 20. The King of Pruſſia, who arriv'd here on the 14th, is preparing to repair ſuddenly into the Dutchy of Cleves. Hearing no Cannon from Philipsburg on the 17th, we concluded the Place was gone, and were ſoon inform'd by Deſerters how Matters went, who aſſur'd us withal, that partly by Sickneſs, and partly by the Fire of the Enemy, not above 300 Men remain'd in the Garriſon able to do Service: This oblig'd the Governor to capitulate, not being able to ſuſtain a general Aſſault. On the 14th our Troops took Poſt in the Village of Rouſſen, a little above Gnaudenheim, and drove 400 French from the Place: We have ſince advanc'd our Works towards the Enemy's Intrenchments with all imaginable Succeſs; but our Generals, after having examin'd the Force of the Intrenchments with the exacteſt Nicety, gave their Opinion there was no attacking them without viſibly endangering the Loſs of the whole Army; upon this it was reſolv'd in a Council of War to abandon the Deſign: Accordingly we began Yeſterday to withdraw our Troops from the advanc'd Poſts, and this Day the Army receiv'd Orders to be ready to march.

From the Upper-Rhine, July 20. The French having taken the Crownwork in the Night between the 14th and 15th, advanc'd their works ſo briskly, and with ſuch Succeſs, that on the 16th they came to the Foot of the Counterſcarp; upon which General Wutgenau, the Governor, finding a Breach made wide enough in the Body of the Place, and that the Enemy was approach'd ſo near that the Cannon could no longer hurt them, that beſides, his Garriſon was ſo far diminiſhed, he had not a ſufficient Number to bear a Storm, ſent an Officer to the French Camp on the 17th to demand to Capitulate; the Marſhal d'Affelt agreed, that the Garriſon ſhould march out with all Military Honours, ſix Pieces of Cannon, four Mortars, and ſome Cover'd Waggons, to be conducted the 21ſt to Mentz, whither the Sick and Wounded are already tranſported by Water. Yeſterday Count Belleiſle, Lieutenant General, took Poſſeſſion of the City. The Imperial Huſſars attack'd lately a French Detachment that had paſs'd the Rhine near Manheim, to attempt to carry off a Convoy of Proviſions going to the Imperial Army; they kill'd 22 of them, and took the reſt Priſoners.

Frankfort, July 22. The King of Pruſſia is momentarily expected in this City. The French give out they will go and undertake the Siege of Mentz, as ſoon as they have repaired the Fortifications of Philipsburgh. The Regiment of Portugal Cuiraſſiers, and that of Ligne Dragoons, march'd out yeſterday to join the Imperial Army, which according to our laſt Accounts is retired to Bruſchal.

Boſton, Sept. 23. We learn by Capt. Gerald, from London, that there is more Talk of a War now than ever, and the Preſs for Seamen is ſo hot, that all the Men belonging to the inward bound Veſſels, except Maſters and Mates, are preſſed as ſoon as they come into Port.

Our private Letters alſo tell us, that as the Emperor has loſt all Naples, and Sicily is like to go next, and as the French puſh on their Conqueſts upon the Rhine without Interruption, 'tis the general Opinion that England and Holland will will ſtrike in; and 'tis ſaid a Project is on foot for thoſe Powers to furniſh the Emperor with 30000 Men each.
